Bouvet Island unified energy system

Overview

On 2015-10-23, the following information was received from the relevant authorities regarding the status of the project. The information received is as follows:

Bouvet Island unified energy system

Unified Energy - Energy and utility consulting and procurement

As a natural extension of our clients' energy procurement efforts, we offer unbiased and independent energy solutions to keep you in control of your utility costs. To learn how Unified Energy can help reduce your energy costs, call 1 (832) 818-7000 or email us at Solutions@UnifiedEnergy

Consider the Planning Scheduling Gap Closed: The New Aspen Unified

In a rapidly evolving global market, energy and chemical companies are always looking for ways to squeeze the most margins out of operations--and meet planned targets. New innovations in planning and scheduling software are making that easier than ever.

Track and Reduce Carbon with Unified Planning Scheduling

Refiners and olefins producers continue to look for innovative ways to reduce carbon emissions. New innovations now enable companies to meet emission targets and still ensure profitable operations. Join our experts for a timely discussion on how Production Optimization in Aspen Unified(TM) can be used to predict and optimize the tradeoff between emissions and profits.
