Overview

Is going solar a scam?

It's likely a scam. While there are some government-funded solar programs for households that qualify, "going solar" isn't free. Honest businesses will tell you exactly how much it'll cost to get and install solar panels. Here's how to steer clear of the scams: Do some research.

Are free solar panels a scam?

Know that "free" or "no cost" solar panel offers are scams. The federal government does not install solar systems in homes for free. If you're considering whether solar energy is right for you, check out the Department of Energy's guide for homeowners and learn more. Or check out the Department of Treasury's guidance on clean energy.

What are the most common solar scams?

Here are some common scams to be aware of: 1. Fake Solar Companies Some scammers create fake solar companies, selling solar panel systems without any intention of installing them. They may ask for a big upfront payment and then vanish without doing any work. 2. Identity Theft Scams.

How do you identify a solar panel company to avoid scams?

These tactics may include persistent calls, scare tactics, door-to-door visits, or making unfounded claims about solar benefits. Companies employing such methods prioritize sales over delivering quality service. These are the red flags to identify solar panel companies to avoid scams.
