Do solar photovoltaics rely on the Chinese market?

With solar photovoltaics taking over recently, an in-depth look into their supply chain shows a surprising dependency on the Chinese market from the raw materials to the assembled PVs. This article tackles the main challenges in the solar energy market and sheds light on the opportunities in that industry.

Will domestic PV consumption bottlenecks reshape China's PV market?

In this regard, a research report from CITIC Securities predicts that if domestic PV consumption bottlenecks are addressed, it could significantly expand the space for new PV installations in China, coupled with a bottoming out of module prices, potentially boosting the willingness to install downstream.

Is China's distributed PV market a problem?

Image: JA Solar. Last year saw 96GW of distributed PV installed in China, an all-time record. But as Carrie Xiao reports, even as the distributed market segment begins to surge, problems associated with its rapid development are beginning to emerge. In 2023, the Chinese photovoltaic industry delivered results that far exceeded expectations.

What is the demand for PV installations in China in 2024?

The demand for PV installations in China in 2024 is expected to exceed expectations, with the annual growth rate revised upwards to 20-30%; the total new PV installations for the year are expected to reach 260GW to 280GW (previously projected at 230GW for 2024).

How did China's photovoltaic industry perform in 2023?

In 2023, the Chinese photovoltaic industry delivered results that far exceeded expectations. According to official figures, China saw the annual addition of approximately 216.88GW of PV capacity in 2023.

What are the limitations of China's solar PV research?

The study has the following limitations: First, while a comprehensive evaluation of China's solar PV was enabled, there remains notable gaps between the research and practical PV development. On one hand, it neglected the influence of other renewable sources, including wind and solar thermal power.
