KW Nicaragua: Succeeding During Uncertain Times

Nicaragua went from being one of the safest and most stable countries in Central America to a nation in crisis. Protests against the government turned violent in 2018, causing widespread fear that led a growing number of Nicaraguans to flee their country. As a result, tourism collapsed and the economy tanked with an estimated $7 million in

KW Nicaragua

"An emerging market, Nicaragua continues to produce increasingly strong opportunities for real estate investors across the U.S. and the globe," said Serrano. "The Nicaraguan economy has grown 4 to 5 percent consistently over the past seven years and tourism is also growing at more than 6 percent a year."
