What is Qatar's Solar Energy Future?

Qatar's solar energy future is steadily developing. With average daily sunshine of around 9.5 hours, low-cloud cover conditions and plentiful space, there is great scope for small, medium as well as large-scale solar power projects in the country.

Why should Qatar invest in solar energy?

Solar energy has multiple advantages for Qatar in the form of energy security, improved air quality, reduced GHG emissions, employment opportunities, apart from augmenting water and food security.

Is Qatar a good country for solar power?

With average daily sunshine of around 9.5 hours, low-cloud cover conditions and plentiful space, there is great scope for small, medium as well as large-scale solar power projects in the country. Qatar's global horizontal irradiance is 2,140 kWh per m<sup>2</sup> per year which makes it well-suited for solar photovoltaic (PV) systems.

How to develop solar power in Qatar?

Currently, efforts have focused on developing solar capacity in the country through research centers, universities, utilities and pilot projects, and a number of institutions including Kahramaa, Qatar Foundation, QNFSP and QSTP are actively working on this front.

Who owns Qatar power plant?

It is owned by Siraj Energy, Marubeni and Total. It is under the build, own, operate and transfer (BOOT) model for a period of 25 years. The licence to own and operate the project will expire after the 25-year term and the power plant's ownership will be transferred to Qatar General Electricity & Water Corporation Kahramaa.

Will Qatar install solar panels on a redundant roof?

To make up for Qatar's space constraints, the company plans to install solar panels on redundant surfaces such as roofs of power stations and water reservoirs, thereby utilizing existing power transmission lines which will substantially reduced construction costs.

Solar power in Qatar. For ages, Qatar has totally relied on its massive gas resources to generate electricity. Today, power diversification by investing in photovoltaic (PV) solar resources is the cornerstone of the National Vision to obtain twenty percent clean energy by 2030. The country's solar energy future seems bright.
