What did the government do in Somalia?

The government also established the Somali Savings and Credit Bank to take over the commercial branches of Banca Nazionale Somala and Banque de Port-Said, leaving the Banca Nazionale Somala with only central banking functions.

Is Somalia a stateless country?

Somalia has struggled to reestablish a functioning state since the collapse of an authoritarian regime in 1991. Somalia has been cited as a real-world example of an anarchist stateless society and a country with no formal legal system. The Transitional Federal Government, formed in 2004, was recognized as the central government of Somalia.

What does the Transitional Federal Government do in Somalia?

The Transitional Federal Government, formed in 2004, was recognized as the central government of Somalia.
